

Prince Aloysious

BAND STORY

Lewin Aloysious Robinson, a.k.a. "Prince Aloysious" was born November 24 on the Caribbean Island of Kingston Jamaica. As a young boy Prince Aloysious would regularly find Himself writing poetry and compiling those poems into books.

Then came a time when the Poetic words of a young boy took on a new turn of thought. After hooking up with some of his childhood brethren, Peter, Paul McLean they decided to start a musical group calling themselves Rags & Riches, from there Prince Aloysious day-to-day poetry writing became his fist book of song lyrics, but the inspiration didn't just stop there. Prince Aloysious mother Mervis also played a tremendous role in the development of his music.

He recalls in his younger days always seeing his mother reading the scriptures singing songs of Zion A ritual that has also become dedicated practice in his own life. Prince Aloysious has shared the stage with artist like Fred Locks, Dennis Brown, Freddie McGregor, Sister Carol, Judah Eskender Tafari, Shine Head, Half Pint, King Benj-I, and many more. Aloysious has been very careful in writing his lyrics through the Inspiration of the Creator, he has said often times, the word take unto it self flesh and live amongst us. Prince Aloysious has been devoted to the Creator and His music, became a member of the Twelve Tribes of Israel from 1980, he as recorded with the Orthodox Music Label, AshGray Music Label.

Prince Aloysious has recently teamed up with Tronic 1 Records. his new
