BAND STORY

Sheena Spirit, reggae pioneeress, was born in Brooklyn and had the blessed encounter of meeting the legendary King of Reggae, Bob Marley in March of 1976. After recording on Bob Dylans album, "Desire", on which she played congas, bells, and tambourine, she found herself cradled deep in the rootz of reggae muzik and decided to make Kingston, Jamaica her second home. Sheena was signed to Tuff Gong International, the original record label of Bob Marley, in 1979. She released her hit single "Reggae Pounding" written and produced by Sheena at Harry J's studio in Kingston. She performed all over the island with many reggae giants, to include Bob Marly, Dennis Brown, Third World, Yellowman, Sly and Robbie, Jacob Miller, Black Uhuru, just to name a few.
